

Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in San Francisco presents

A Concert for Korean War Veterans and Independence Activists as Guests of Honor

Violinist, Edwin E. S. Kim

- Professor of Violin at Hanyang University, Seoul, Korea
- Top prize winner of the Zinetti International Chamber Music Competition, Maria Canals International Music Competition, Tibor Varga International Violin Competition, 'Rodolfo Lipizer' International Violin Competition and Spohr International Violin Competition

Pianist, Melanie M. Y. CHAE

- Faculty member of Jeonbuk National University, Yewon School and Seoul Arts High in Korea
- The First prize winner of the Zinetti International Chamber Music Competition and Maria Canals International Music Competition, the Second prize in the Concorde Internazionale Citta in Pinerolo

- ◆ Date : October 6, 2019 (Sunday)
- ◆ Time : 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
- ◆ Venue : San Francisco Conservatory of Music
(50 Oak Street, San Francisco, CA 94102)
- ◆ Admission is FREE OF CHARGE for all Korean War veterans and their guests. RSVP is required with the name of you and each of your guests by September 22 as seating is limited.
- ◆ To RSVP, contact Emma Lee, Korean Consulate General
(Email: sfkoreancg@mofa.go.kr, Phone: 415-590-4053)
- ◆ Song to be played (subject to change)
 - Kreisler Praeludium and Allegro
 - Sarasate Zigeuerweisen op. 20